LESSON 4

The Nature of Man

MATCHING (write the number of the text by the summary that corresponds)

1. Genesis 1:26-28
2. Psalms 8:3-9
3. Romans 5:12, 14-19
4. Romans 7:14-15, 21-25
5. Psalms 51:5
6. Jeremiah 17:9-10
7. Acts 17:26-27

___ God greatly honored man by creating us in His glorious image and likeness. As God is to the Universe we are to be to planet earth. We were honored with authority to manage the wonders of God's creation and to populate the earth with our offspring.

___ Living with a sinful nature means that there will be a continual argument with between right and wrong with a strong inclination to go wrong. Asking Jesus into our life declares war on the sinful nature ensuing a struggle born out of a desire to serve God. The bottom line is we fail repeatedly, but, thank God help is available to work in us to train and strengthen our will (Philippians 2:13), and to cover our failures.

___ God has taken everything into consideration for every man woman and child to place them in time and space so they have the best opportunity to find Him and be saved. He promises that if we search for Him we will find Him, He stays within reach. (Deuteronomy 4:29; Matthew 7:7-11)

___ The destitute nature of our frayed heart are beyond our reach. Even our most brilliantly thorough cleansings and our most courageously selfless crusades will end with the tell tale expressions of our selfish nature showing in the very texture of our life.

___ Nestled in the glorious wonder of a vast universe, on a custom designed planet, live beings slightly less powerful than angels yet the objects of God's tender regard.

___ We are sinful from the moment of conception.

___ The Consequences of Adam's were death, judgment and condemnation for all men. However anyone who receives Jesus can receive the eternal gifts of life, Christ's righteousness, and justification. Thus we get to choose Adam's legacy of death or Jesus' free gift of eternal life.

SUMMARY PARAGRAPH

Man and woman were made in the image of God with individuality, the power and freedom to think and to do. Though created free beings, each is an indivisible unity of body, mind, and spirit, dependent upon God for life and breath and all else. When our first parents disobeyed God, they denied their dependence upon Him and fell from their high position under God. The image of God in them was marred and they became subject to death. Their descendants share this fallen nature and its consequences. They are born with weaknesses and tendencies to evil. But God in Christ reconciled the world to Himself and by His Spirit restores in penitent mortals the image of their Maker. Created for the glory of God, they are called to love Him and one another, and to care for their environment
